TEXTILE SOURCING COUNTRIES & REGIONS

Textile Supply Chain

Raw Material Manufacturing

This includes the cultivation, ginning or synthesis of fibers such as cotton, man-made cellulose (wood), animal fibres (wool) or synthetics.

Cotton: India, Turkey, Others.
Synthetics: China, Turkey, Vietnam, India, South Korea. Animal Fibres: Argentina, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Uruguay, China. MMC: Canada, Sweden, Central Europe, United States.

Yarning Manufacturing/Spinning

Raw fibers are spun into yarn, the basic component for making textiles.

Wet processing steps can take place here i.e. yarn dyeing.

Yarn: China, Pakistan, Bangladesh, India, Turkey, Thailand, Vietnam, Others. WPU: China, India, Bangladesh, Turkey, Pakistan, Thailand, Italy, Germany, Taiwan, Sri Lanka, Albania, Vietnam, Austria, Spain.

Fabric Manufacturing

Yarn is woven or knitted into fabric sheets.

Wet processing steps can take place here i.e. fabric dyeing or printing.

Fabric: China, Hongkong, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Turkey, India, Others. WPU: China, India, Bangladesh, Turkey, Pakistan, Thailand, Italy, Germany, Taiwan, Sri Lanka, Albania, Vietnam, Austria, Spain.

Apparel/Finished Product Manufacturing

Fabrics are cut, sewn and assembled or knitted into finished textile products like clothing or home textiles.

China, Bangladesh, Laos, Turkey, Cambodia, Pakistan, India, Tunisia, Sri Lanka, Germany, Vietnam, Poland, Italy, Austria.

MANUFACTURING

Cut Make Trim (CMT) or final product knitting, including outsourced process steps i.e. embroidery.

Transparency of the manufacturer which produces products for Tchibo is a minimum requirement before any order placement. This includes additional checks of identified production steps which have a high risk of outsourcing, i.e. printing and embroidery. Every manufacturer in risk countries is audited regarding social and environmental requirements before order placements.

FABRIC & SPINNING

Production of cotton, wool or synthetics yarn. The yarn is later used for the weaving or knitting production of fabrics or for final product knitting.

Additional transparency of fabric and spinning mills is achieved within the certification “Cotton Made in Africa” which is used for many Tchibo textile products. The data is collected by the Aid by Trade Foundation and accessible to Tchibo at any time.

RAW MATERIAL

Certified cotton, man-made cellulose, animal or synthetics fibres are sourced for textile products.

Achieving transparency in the origins of raw materials, which are used in products, comes with many challenges for businesses. One of the major challenges is the complexity of supply chains. Multiple tiers of suppliers and global movement make tracing origins difficult. This is why we decided to work with material and supply chain certifications. Through these, we achieve increasing transparency on the level of origin country and region.
